

I love the KLOVE radio station in our local area. It really gets me through the day. I feel KLOVE is an asset to our community because it gives the Christian population some wholesome music to listen to. Also, it helps those who don't know the Lord to hear about him and, hopefully, come to know him as their Lord and Savior.